The Fine Art of Pretending

(Rachel Harris)

→ According to the guys at Fairfield Academy, there are two types of girls: the kind you hook up with, and the kind you're friends with. Seventeen-year-old Alyssa Reed is the second type. And she hates it.

Mengele's Girl

(Viola Stern Fischerová, Veronika Homolová Tóthová)

→ The woman who survived Mengele's attempts, four concentration camps and finally she ran away. The terrible time has created many stories, stories of courage, boldness, kindness and sacrifice, but also of malice, subversion and mock humiliation of other human beings. However, the story of Viola Fischer is exceptional. She, besides surviving the hell of death camps and found herself in a risky escape, has done something else. Thanks to her, they caught the brutal war criminal from Birkenau.

Those Who Failed

→The reality TV star is found murdered in an abandoned school building, shot in the head with a bolt gun. Tied to a classroom chair, he's been positioned facing a corner of the room with a dunce cap on his head. A several pages long exam paper has been nailed to the back of the chair. Judging by the number of wrong answers, the victim failed the most important test of his life.

In Those Who Failed, the fifth book in Hjorth and Rosenfeldt's internationally bestselling series about Sebastian Bergman, Sebastian and his team are faced with a complex and devious serial killer that will threaten the very existence of the team.
